

The Autrey Mill Middle School PTA and Rotary Interact Club present as a part of the parent night series:

STREET GRACE

On Human Trafficking and sexual exploitation in North Atlanta and how it's affecting our children and our communities.

Tuesday, March 27th at 6:30pm at Autrey Mill Middle School
Parents and Students are Welcome

Discussion topics will include:

- What it is
- How to spot it
- Importance of knowing how to "see" exploitation to protect yourself and others
- Contributing factors and areas of vulnerability
- What can parents do to protect their children
- Q&A Session

Street Grace is a faith-based organization mobilizing faith, business and community leaders to end the sexual trafficking of children across the USA through awareness, education and action.

www.streetgrace.org